

"DRAGON FIRE: It's a pure musical jewel of neoclassical metal!"

- Ovidiu, Metal Music Archives \(Nov 13, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE: Overall, if you love it complex and epic this is for you. The songs are well written and performed admirably..."

- Jonathan Maphet, Metal Temple \(Oct 24, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE: Mitheria return as this mastermind of keyboard wizardry returns with yet another fine neon-classic metal masterpiece."

- Jason Brown, Friday 13th zine \(Oct 15, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE: If you want fast power metal combined with classical parts, high speed guitar runs, blistering keyboard runs, great keyboard and guitar duels and leads, some very convincing vocal performances, all wrapped in a good production then I suggest you give this one a listen..."

- Kenn Jensen, Power of Metal \(Oct 11, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE: If you're a fan of progressive metal, you won't be disappointed."

- Managing Editor, HardRock Heaven \(Oct 04, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE: The guest list of the album is certainly impressive, for vocalists try John West, Mark Boals, Rob Rock, Lance King and Titta Tani for size. The guitar front is equally talent packed with George Bellas, Roger Staffelbach, Neil Zaza and Emir Hot handling six string duties whilst the rhythm section is Twinspirits' Alberto Rigoni on bass and drum legend John Macaluso."

- Andy Craven, Virtuosity One \(Oct 22, 2010\)

"High quality players rarely sink below a certain level - so if you miss challenging instrumentation and soaring performances, DRAGON FIRE will fill your neo-classical metal appetite."

- Matt Coe, Eternal Terror \(Oct 04, 2010\)

"DRAGON FIRE is an immense, grand, and generally gratifying work."

Craig Hartranft, DangerDog \(Oct 11, 2010\)